

HR group management system user case diagrams explains about modules and priority of module while developing application. Every application consists of different modules where each module is developed based on priority. This diagram will help students while developing project source code.

HR management project report will provide detailed explanation on every module. ER diagrams, software life cycle diagrams are important for developing this project user case diagrams HR group manageemnt

